AN ACCOUNT OF THE

ASYLUM, or HOUSE of REFUGE,

(Situated on the Surry Side of Weſtminſter-Bridge)

For the Reception of ORPHAN GIRLS within the Bills of Mortality, whoſe Settlements cannot be found.

INSTITUTED in the YEAR MDCCLVIII.

THE purpoſe of this charity is to preſerve friendleſs and deſerted girls from thoſe dangers and misfortunes, to which their diſtreſſed ſituation expoſes them.

Though attempts to reclaim the vicious, already become nuiſances to ſociety, are, without doubt, laudable and deſerving of encouragement, yet, to anticipate the evil, by implanting in tender minds the principles of religion and virtue; by cultivating in them habits of ſobriety and induſtry; and thereby rendering them uſeful to the public, as well as happy to themſelves, is certainly an act of the moſt exalted benevolence: and ſeems alſo a more practicable undertaking, in proportion as prevention is leſs difficult than recovery.

That the evils this charity aims at preventing are not chimerical may be eaſily evinced.

Almoſt infinite is the number of perſons in and about the metropolis, not only of the loweſt ſtations, but alſo of the moſt extreme indigence; whoſe children are frequently too numerous to receive maintenance, much leſs education, even from the exacteſt induſtry. And when the lives of the parents are ſhortened by intemperance or accident, which is often the caſe, their children are left totally deſtitute and helpleſs.

What then muſt become of the daughters of ſuch parents, whoſe ſettlements are extremely difficult to be aſcertained; eſpecially the Orphans of ſeamen and ſoldiers? poor and ignorant as they are, they muſt be encompaſſed with every temptation; and neceſſity may make them proſtitutes, before their paſſions can have any ſhare in their guilt.

Add to this, that the fine features, frequently to be found in dirt and rags, are known to expoſe the poſſeſſors of them to ſtill greater hazards.

This is the kind of prey which the procureſs is moſt eager to devour; which ſhe trepans to her brothel, and ſubdues, by the vileſt arts, to her wicked purpoſes.

A ſituation ſo truly pitiable, cannot but affect the heart with the warmeſt feelings of humanity.

And though the dangers and diſtreſſes, to which ſuch little female deſtitutes are liable, might be placed in various other lights equally affecting, yet what has been already urged, it is hoped, will be ſufficient to convince the judicious of the utility of this deſign, and to engage the compaſſionate in its ſupport. We ſhall therefore dwell no longer on the repreſentation of the evil; but ſhew what ſteps have been taken to prevent it.

GENERAL MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES.

A Preſident, ſix Vice-preſidents, and a Treaſurer are appointed; and twenty of the Guardians to form a Committee, to meet once a month at the Aſylum, or oftener if neceſſary, to ſee to the execution of ſuch rules and orders as may be made at the general quarterly meetings, which are to be held for auditing the accounts, and other material buſineſs, on the ſecond Thurſday in January, on the firſt Thurſday in April, (except the ſame fall in Eaſter Week, and then the Thurſday following) and on the firſt Thurſday in July, and October; of which Notice is to be given by public advertiſement; and to the Committee by Letter.

The Committee is to be named annually; and if any difference of opinion ariſe, the election is to be determined by ballot.

The Preſident, Vice-preſidents, and Treaſurer are of every Committee. And notwithſtanding particular gentlemen are annually named for the more immediate conduct of this charity, yet every Guardian, who pleaſes, may attend and vote at the Committees.

VISITING LADIES.

The Guardians, being deſirous that no means ſhould be wanting to promote the laudable purpoſes of this inſtitution, and conſidering the Ladies as highly capable of aſſiſting therein, have requeſted the favour of ſuch as are Subſcribers to viſit and inſpect into the oeconomy of the houſe; to examine into the employment of the children, and all ſuch things as relate to the training them up for uſeful houſewifely ſervants; and to communicate to the Committee, by letter, ſuch obſervations as may ſeem to them neceſſary.

CHAPLAIN.

A Chaplain, who reſides in the houſe, is appointed to read prayers and preach a ſermon twice every Sunday throughout the year; viz. at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and at ſix in the evening; and to catechiſe the children: to ſuperintend the conduct of the family; and to promote, by every means in his power, the benefit of the charity.

SECRETARY and COLLECTOR.

A Secretary and Collector is appointed to attend all the meetings of the Guardians, to take down the minutes of their proceedings; to ſummon Committees; to collect the ſubſcriptions, and receive contributions; and to make the neceſſary enquiries into the circumſtances of ſuch objects as ſhall be preſented for admiſſion into this charity.

WRITING MASTER.

A Writing Maſter is alſo appointed to attend twice a week, to teach the ten ſenior girls to write, and to caſt up a ſum in addition.

QUALIFICATION of GUARDIANS.

The qualification of an annual Guardian, is a yearly ſubſcription of Three Guineas, or upwards.

The qualification of a perpetual Guardian, is a ſubſcription of Thirty Guineas, or upwards.

Ladies ſubſcribing as above, are entitled to vote at all elections of officers of the houſe by proxy, ſuch proxy being a Guardian, or by a letter ſpecifying the perſon whom they approve.

Gentlemen and Ladies, who have ſubſcribed leſs than thirty guineas, by increaſing their laſt ſubſcription to that ſum, within the year, will be admitted as perpetual Guardians.

DESCRIPTION of OBJECTS.

The objects are orphan girls, bereft of both their parents, from the age of nine to twelve years, having reſided at leaſt ſix months within the bills of mortality, whoſe ſettlements cannot be found: but if it ſhall at any time appear, that a girl has been brought into places within the ſaid bills, in order to qualify her in reſpect to reſidence, ſhe will thereby be rendered incapable of ever receiving the benefit of this charity.

And as the ſaid objects are to be conſtantly employed in the ſeveral offices of good houſewifry, in order to qualify them for domeſtic ſervants, diſeaſed or infirm children cannot be recceived. And the Phyſician, Surgeons, and Apothecary, are therefore to be ſummoned by the Secretary to attend at the times of admiſſion.

RULES FOR THEIR ADMISSION.

That no children be admitted, but by order of a quarterly, or ſpecial general court, to be ſummoned by adverti ſement for that purpoſe.

That the Guardians preſent, according to the priority of their ſubſcriptions: but that no annual Guardians have a right to preſent, till after the payment of a ſecond ſubſcription of three guineas, or upwards; and unleſs the ſubſcription be regularly kept up, or the arrears paid, they loſe their right of preſentation.

That thoſe Guardians who are to preſent, have notice thereof by letter from the Secretary; and that the objects preſented be produced to the Committee; and bring a certificate, as follows; or give other ſatisfactory proofs, where ſuch certificate cannot be had.

To the PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENTS, and GUARDIANS of the ASYLUM.

We, whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do certify, that A. B. the bearer, being, as we believe, between the age of nine and twelve years, has no known ſettlement; that ſhe reſides in our pariſh, and appears to be in a very diſtreſſed condition, having neither father or mother living, or friends to ſupport her: and therefore recommend her as a proper object of your protection.

{Overſeers.

{Pariſhioners of the pariſh of

That if any object be deemed unqualified, the Guardians who preſent them, be immediately acquainted therewith.

That if a Guardian does not preſent before the enſuing quarterly meeting, according to priority, and the rules above-mentioned, the next in turn take the preſentation; but the former nominate at the ſucceeding admiſſion.

THEIR EMPLOYMENT.

They are to make ſhirts, ſhifts, and table linen; to do all kinds of plain needle work; to knit ſtockings and garters, whenever there ſhall be no public work in the Houſe, nor linen of their own to make; and to perform the buſineſs of the houſe and kitchen; to which latter, four are appointed weekly, according to their age and abilities; to aſſiſt the cook, to waſh, iron, and get up all the linen, which is alſo made and mended by themſelves, who are thus trained up for uſeful domeſtic ſervants; and are not put out till they have acquired the following qualifications, viz.

To produce to the Committee a ſhirt cut out, made, waſhed, and ironed by their own hands.

To be able to cut out and make their own linen, to clean rooms, and make beds, to underſtand plain cookery, and to clean kitchen, and other houſhold, furniture.

To read a chapter in the Bible, write a legible hand, and caſt up a ſum in addition.

N. B. The ten ſenior girls are kept in a ſeparate claſs, in order to be more fully inſtructed in the above qualifications, and are diſtinguiſhed on Sundays by a white cuff to their gowns.

Shirts, ſhifts, table linen, and all kinds of plain needle work, are taken in at the Aſylum, and performed by the children at the following rates, viz.

A full trimmed ſhirt or ſhift, at			0 2 0
A plain ditto, at			0 1 6
A ſervant's ditto, at			0 1 0
A large table cloth, at			0 0 6
A ſmall ditto, at			0 0 4
Fine napkins, at	per doz.		0 1 6
Common ditto, at	per doz.		0 1 0
Fine ſheets, at	per pair		0 1 6
Common ditto, at	per pair		0 1 0
Fine pocket handkerchiefs at	per doz.		0 1 0
Common ditto, at	per doz.		0 0 6

And coarſer work of every ſort proportionably cheap.

MANNER of PLACING THEM OUT.

The objects thus trained are to be bound apprentices for ſeven years, at the age of fifteen, or ſooner, if qualified, and required by perſons approved of (and who are to appear themſelves, unleſs ſuch appearance be diſpenſed with) by the Committee, as domeſtic ſervants in reputable families, reſiding in England, or in any part of his Majeſty's dominions; the greateſt care being taken by the Guardians to enquire into the characters of maſters and miſtreſſes, before the children are entruſted to them.

But, if there ſhall at any time be in the houſe a girl or girls, who may have contracted ſuch diſeaſes or infirmities as may render her or them incapable of the labour of domeſtic ſervice, the Committee is empowered to put out ſuch girl or girls to any trade they ſhall think proper, with a premium not exceeding Ten pounds.

The Committee is alſo empowered to expend, in ſuch clothing as ſhall be found neceſſary, a ſum not exceeding Five Pounds, for the uſe of any child apprenticed from this charity, who ſhall apply for the ſame, produce to the Committee a certificate ſigned by her maſter or miſtreſs, or both if living, of her faithful ſervice during her apprenticeſhip, together with a catalogue of the apparel ſhe is poſſeſſed of at the expiration of the ſame, ſigned alſo by her maſter or miſtreſs, or both, as above.
